

How Do the Illuminati Use Problem-Reaction-Solution to Influence Global Trends?

Sixbert SANGWA • September 03, 2024

The Problem-Reaction-Solution (PRS) model is a strategic framework often employed by powerful groups to manipulate global events and steer public opinion in favor of their hidden agendas. The Illuminati, along with its allied secret organizations, are believed to be at the top of this world hierarchy. Acting as intermediaries between the spiritual forces of darkness and the visible world leaders, these groups are said to use PRS to further their interests and pave the way for the New World Order and the rise of the Antichrist. This article will explore how the Illuminati utilizes this manipulative approach, demonstrating their ultimate goal of creating a one-world government under the control of the Antichrist.

The Problem-Reaction-Solution framework is a three-step process that involves creating a problem, instigating a public reaction, and then providing a solution that aligns with a predetermined [hidden] agenda. The Bible warns of deceptive tactics employed by the rulers of darkness. In Ephesians 6:12, it is stated, "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this darkness, against evil, spiritual forces in the heavens." This verse provides a spiritual backdrop to understand the deceptive methods used by these powerful entities.

- 1. Problem Creation: The Illuminati and their secret affiliates often manufacture or amplify crises to create chaos or fear. Whether it's orchestrating wars, economic collapses, pandemics, or social unrest, these groups create scenarios that generate fear and uncertainty among the masses. The intention is to destabilize societies, erode trust in existing institutions, and prepare the public to accept drastic changes that they might otherwise resist.
- 2. Manipulating Public Reaction: Once a problem has been created, the Illuminati use their influence over global media, political institutions, and educational systems to shape public perception and reaction. The media plays a crucial role in this stage by saturating coverage with fear-inducing imagery and rhetoric, driving people to a state of panic or outrage. This controlled reaction often involves calls for government intervention or stronger control measures. As Proverbs 29:25 warns, "The fear of mankind is a snare, but the one who trusts in the Lord is protected." The fear spread by these orchestrated crises often traps people into seeking security at the cost of their freedoms.
- 3. Offering a Pre-Planned Solution: After creating a crisis and managing the public's reaction, the Illuminati and their affiliates then present a solution. This solution often involves measures that increase their control, such as new laws, surveillance technologies, or loss of personal freedoms under the guise of protecting public safety. The solutions proposed are always aligned with the ultimate goal of establishing a global government, centralizing power in fewer hands, and setting the stage for the Antichrist. Revelation 13:16-17 speaks of this time when no one can buy or sell unless they have the mark, symbolizing absolute control over economic and social life.

The Illuminati's use of the Problem-Reaction-Solution model is not random but part of a broader strategy to manipulate global trends and prepare the way for the Antichrist. The Bible describes the rise of the Antichrist as a leader who will emerge amidst chaos and will bring a deceptive peace that ultimately leads to global domination. In 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4, Paul warns, "Don't let anyone deceive you in any way. For that day will not come unless the apostasy comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction." This verse highlights the deceitful rise to power that will characterize the Antichrist's rule.

By manipulating global events through the PRS strategy, the Illuminati fosters a fertile environment for this "man of lawlessness." For instance, they orchestrate economic crises to weaken nations, compelling them to adopt policies that surrender national sovereignty to a global authority. Health pandemics, such as the COVID-19 crisis, have been used to enforce mass vaccination, introduce digital tracking systems, and expand governmental powers—precursors to the control systems described in the Bible. These actions are not mere responses to problems but carefully crafted steps toward a predetermined goal.

There are numerous instances in recent history where the Problem-Reaction-Solution model appears to have been employed to advance a globalist agenda:

- Terrorism and Security: The aftermath of major terrorist attacks has often seen a rapid increase in surveillance measures, erosion of civil liberties, and expanded government powers. While presented as necessary steps to protect citizens, these measures also increase control over the population. Daniel 8:25 foretells that through cunning, the Antichrist will cause deceit to prosper and consider himself superior, suggesting a pattern of manipulation and control.
- Financial Instability: The global financial system has been frequently destabilized by crises, leading to bailouts that benefit the few at the expense of the many. This concentration of wealth and power aligns with the goals of those who wish to see a global financial system controlled by a select few. These orchestrated financial crises serve as a precursor to the prophesied economic control depicted in Revelation 13:17.
- Pandemics and Health Crises: Public health emergencies, such as pandemics, have been used to implement unprecedented government control over daily life, movement, and health choices. Under the guise of protecting public health, these crises provide a justification for intrusive measures and societal restructuring. The book of Revelation 6:8 speaks of plagues as a tool of control and judgment, aligning with how these modern crises are used to consolidate power.

The use of Problem-Reaction-Solution by the Illuminati and allied secret organizations to manipulate global trends extends beyond political maneuvering; it is a spiritual battle. These entities, acting as intermediaries between dark spiritual forces and visible world leaders, aim to deceive and control humanity, ultimately preparing the world for the Antichrist. The Bible calls for discernment among believers. 1 Peter 5:8 urges, "Be sober-minded, be alert. Your adversary the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for anyone he can devour." Understanding these tactics helps Christians remain vigilant against deception and stand firm in their faith.

The establishment of a one-world government, the erosion of freedoms, and the consolidation of power all point towards the fulfillment of biblical prophecy regarding the end times. Christians are encouraged to "test the spirits" as noted in 1 John 4:1 to ensure they are not led astray by false teachings or manipulative agendas.

The ongoing creation of global challenges serves as a strategic maneuver to justify the establishment of a unified global governance system, often referred to as the New World Order. These challenges—whether economic crises, environmental catastrophes, or health pandemics—are portrayed as insurmountable problems that individual nations cannot tackle alone. By amplifying these issues, powerful entities argue for a centralized authority capable of coordinating global responses. This narrative gradually paves the way for the acceptance of a one-world government, expectedly led by a figure of immense power, the Antichrist. The Bible describes this as a time when deceit and manipulation will prosper, and a man of lawlessness will rise, bringing a deceptive peace that ultimately leads to the consolidation of power under a single global regime.

In conclusion, the Problem-Reaction-Solution model is a sophisticated tool of manipulation employed by the Illuminati and their secret affiliates to guide global events toward a singular objective: the New World Order and the rise of the Antichrist. By creating problems, influencing reactions, and providing solutions, these powerful entities manipulate world events to consolidate control, deceive the masses, and pave the way for a one-world government led by the Antichrist. As believers, it is crucial to remain discerning and anchored in the truth of God's Word. John 8:32 reminds us, "You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." Let us cling to the truth and be vigilant, knowing that spiritual warfare is at play in the highest echelons of global power.
